D A. R -At a recent meeting of Mt. Version Chapter, D. A. R., it was resolved that the chapter should take the initiative in sppealing to the patriotic societies of the country to aid in the restoration of Pohick Church. A committee was appointed to draw up an appeal for circulation. The following was submitted and adopted by the chapter:
To the Historic, Patriotic and A

quarian Societies and to the C'err

We appeal to restore Pohick Chu, which General Washington was a ve-tryman and a regular attendant.

The site was ches in and the plans presented by General Washington himself an i the church was erected in 1772.
He chose the present site as more accessible and desirable than that of the or ginal church, a wooden a ructure on the other side of Pohick creek from

Not only were the ground plans and front elevation drawn by General Washington with his own hand, but also the plans for the aisles, the disposition of the pews and chancel and the location of the pulpit. The old walls, covered with ivv. still stand intact, as they did when the General sat and inlened to the ministrations of Parson Lee Massey; but the interior is now dis reantled, only temporary seats and primitive chancel furtifure.

We wish to restore the interior as it was designed and carried out by the ELOPERS CAUGHT.—Floyd Noonan, aged 23 years, who has been married about fur years and has a wife and three children, and Miss Bessie Scarborough, aged 17 years, eloped from Harlord county, Md., a few days since. They left in a buggy drawn by a fairly good bay horse, but carried little buggage. The authorities of Harford county have been on the trail of the elopers since they left there. This morning a telephone met he was received here from Dumfries saying that the elopers had passed through that village and were coming this way and telling the police to look out for them. Officer Knight was on the alert and soon thereafter took into custody the man and woman, whom he captured at the corner of Queen and Fayette streets. They were in the buggy and on their way to Washington. Officer Knight drove the elopers to the station house and soon thereafter the sheriff of Harford county, who had been following the elopers, also arrived there. He had a warrant for their arrest and the man was charged with abducting a girl under age. The man and young woman frankly admitted that they were the parties wanted and for whose arrest a reward of $100 had been offered. They did not seem to be much concerned to the first ward.

A CORRECTION.-Captain Bryant to A CORRECTION.—Captain Bryant to-day, in speaking of the account publish-ed in yesterday's Gazette concerning the meeting of the Police Commission-ers, said he had not mentioned Officer Wilkinson's name, but Officer Atkin-son's, as the officer who he had heard had reported to the Mayor that certain officers had been drunk on the occasion of a barquet given in this city over a of a banquet given in this city over a year ago. Captain Bryant also says that the Gazette's report represented him as saying that it was currently reported at the time of the banquet that policemen had been drunk and disorpolicemen had been drunk and disor-derly, whereas, he says, he had never heard of the occurrence till it was re-ferred to by the Mayor in his opinion rendered las' February, when he sus-pended Officers Lyles and Wilkinson.

FIRE AT ARMORY HALL -The alarm of fire shortly before 2 o'clock today was caused by a slight blaze in the armory of the Alexandria Light Infantry on Royal street near Prince.
Smoke was discovered issuing from the hall and Driver Clapdore and several members of the Relief trock company hastened thereto and soon extinguished the flames. The engines responded promptly but their services were not needed. How the fire started is not known, but it is supposed that one of the members of the company last night threw a cigarette in a pile of trash on the floor near a fireplace and that the fire thus started smouldered until to-day when the flames broke out. The damage was slight.

FUNERALS.-The funeral of the late Patrick Bayne, whose death occurred on Wednesday afternoon, took place at 9.30 o'clock this morning from St. Mary's Caurch. The services were con-lucted by Rev. Father Patrick, of Ma-
